(Draft of letter to attorney general the above motion)

(For the court to not appoint a guardian ad litem in a contested placement case, the court must find statute 767.0451(a)2 to be unconstitutional. This letter is a formality that must be sent, otherwise the trial court can dismiss the constitutional issue on the technicality that the attorney general was not notified. The attorney general will normally send a response letter indicating they do not wish to be involved at this time, and to be notified if this issue is raised on appeal.)
